Wisconsin Area Camera Club Organization

Presents
A Photography Seminar
With

John Dykstra & Ed Post

March 13th, 2010 - Saturday - 9 AM to 4 PM
Best Western Brookfield, Symposium Room
1005 S. Moorland Road, Brookfield

This intensive day-long seminar on basic and advanced techniques in Nature, Landscape and Travel Photography will help you get the most from your equipment in order to produce memorable images. John and Ed will teach you how to recognize great composition and dramatic light and understand the techniques needed to capture them. Their entertaining and descriptive instruction is accompanied by eye-pleasing digital presentations that have consistently produced enthusiastic comments by audiences. To answer the question "What do I do after I have taken the photograph?" there will be demonstrations of Photoshop techniques and workflow.

Subjects covered:
LIGHT - EXPOSURE - EQUIPMENT - COMPOSITION
DIGITAL PROCESSING

If you want to jump start your photography, develop a "photographer's eye," and learn professional techniques, this is the seminar for you. John and Ed will send you home inspired and equipped to make great photographs. They share a passion for photography and together have conducted seminars, workshops and photo tours across the United States.
